

This is the letter QUPH: ק (קוף)

If you look at it Quickly and Kind of Crooked it looKs like a letter Q. In fact, it sounds like the letter Q, but without the “u” that has to follow it in English. It is the only letter that isn’t a final form that goes below the line.

QUPH represents the number 100.

Practice reading the letter QUPH with all the vowels:
